

IH membership is designed for those valued individuals, organisations, companies who are interested to introduce, read, learn, create and support more attention for the best of Indian Culture, Art, Heritage and Business Culture in and around Europe. India House is a private initiative and will aim the best for its national and international respected members.

IH membership for individuals offers

1. Free magazine bimonthly
2. update and invitations for public events.
3. free access to library

IH Memberships for organisations, companies, department offers

1. Free magazine bimonthly.
2. Your products and history of your organization are presented to the Dutch society on occasions.
3. update and invitations for public and corporate events.
4. free access to library and corporate data networking

We have for organisations and companies a standard MOU to protect those companies organisations goodwill and business culture of its members. IH will be committed to give and bring the best for its members. To become a member you can ask for our standard fee form included with the MOU.